

25X1008b1

Approved For Release 2000/08/23 : CIA-RDP65-00756R000600070023-4

Approved For Release 2000/08/23 : CIA-RDP65-00756R000600070023-4

STAFF AT THE MILITARY FACULTY OF THE MOSCOW ORIENTAL INSTITUTE

CHIEFS

In 1940 Colonel Sergei Nikolayevich STEPANOV was chief of the Military Faculty of the Far Eastern Language Institute in Moscow( IN 13559, 29 Jan 1954

In 1947, Major fnu BARANOV, former GRU officer who had been dismissed from GRU because of flap in Shanghai towards the end of WW II, was chief of the Military Faculty of the Moscow Oriental Institute. Despite its imposing title, BARANOV's job was a minor one which consisted in giving the rudiments of military training to students in the institute. In 1948 he fell under a train and was killed. [REDACTED] 3 June 1954)

25X1A2g

25X1A2g

STUDENTS AT THE MILITARY FACULTY OF THE MOSCOW ORIENTAL INSTITUTE
25X1X6

25X1X6

BALASANOV (formerly BALASANIAN), Gerasim Martinovich. At date not mentioned by [REDACTED] graduated from Moscow Oriental Institute. Like [REDACTED] was a student of Japanese. Entered GUGB around 1940 and has been in it ever since. ( ~~RR~~ SR interrogation in March 1954)

DYGAY, Boris. Graduated from Mil Faculty Moscow Oriental Institute in 1940. Became attached to GRU and sometime after his graduation sent to Chita where [REDACTED] saw him in 1941. In 43 or 44 transferred to NKGB. [REDACTED] Dec 1954)

25X1X6

25X1A2g

STUDENTS AT THE MOSCOW ORIENTAL INSTITUTE

25X1X6

KASPAROV, Grigori Pavlovich @ KASHKAROV, Grigori Pavlovich. At date not specified by [REDACTED] attended Moscow Oriental Institute with Gerasim Martinovich BALASANOV ( SR interrog of March 1954) Outstanding St Security official.

KRASNYANSKI, Aleksandr Alekseyevich. Source believes KRASNYANSKI is a grad of the Moscow Oriental Institute. In 1954 about 48. Speaks English and Japanese. Been in State Security a long time.

STUDENTS AT THE MOSCOW ORIENTAL INSTITUTE

25X1X6

TSVETKOV, Petr Grigoriyevich TSVETKOV is a graduate of the Moscow Oriental Institute. Entered NKVD around 1937. [REDACTED] does not know what language he studied at the institute but it was either Japanese, Mandarin or Korean. After graduation from the Institute he was sent to Korea sometime before WW II, at that time working closely with G.P. KASPAROV WHOM HE LATER SUCCEEDED IN Korea.

VASHKIN, Ivan Alekseyevich. At time not stated by [REDACTED] 25X1X6 graduated from the Moscow Oriental Institute. Speaks fair Japanese with smattering of English. Has over 30 years experience with State Security ([REDACTED] May 54, VASHKIN dossier). 25X1A2g

25X1X6

25X1X6 ZUDIN, Sergei Semenovich. Around 1940/1941 graduated from the Military Faculty of the Moscow Oriental Institute. [REDACTED] believes he studied Japanese. [REDACTED] goes not give intell service nor what happened to him. [REDACTED] 25X1A2g (June 1954)

In 1953 the number of students in the Oriental Institute was reduced by 50 per cent, but the best students were retained. .... During the school year 1953-54, it was decided to close the Oriental Institute and transfer half of the better students to the Eastern Department of the International Relations Institute.

(AEDAMSON: BIOGRAPHICAL AND ASSESSMENT REPORT)

25X1X6

In 1953 the number of students in the Oriental Institute was reduced by 50 per cent, but the best students were retained. .... During the school year 1953-54, it was decided to close the Oriental Institute and transfer half of the better students to the Eastern Department of the International Relations Institute.

(ALDAMSON: BIOGRAPHICAL AND ASSOCIATE DEPARTMENT)

25X1A8a

25X15001

Approved For Release 2000/08/23 : CIA-RDP65-00756R000600070023-4

Approved For Release 2000/08/23 : CIA-RDP65-00756R000600070023-4